

CORNER COUNTRY BIRDS

The diverse landscapes of the Corner Country are home to many native Australian birds.

Some are permanent residents, some make their homes here when there is available food or water. Either way, their presence is a joy for the many avid birdwatchers, or just interested passers-by.

These images represent birds seen and photographed locally, just a sample of our amazing birdlife.

Column One
Emus
Shelducks
Pelican

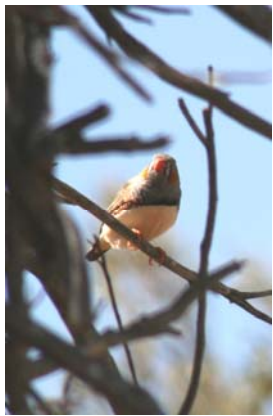

Column two
Wedgetail eagle
Australian goshawk

Column three
Royal spoonbill
Native hen
Red-kneed dotterel

Column four
Banded lapwing
Praticole
Gull-billed tern

Column one
Diamond dove
Bronze-wing pigeon
Crested pigeon

Column two
Major Mitchell cockatoo
Galah

Column three
Little corellas
Cockatiel
Blue-winged parrot

Column four
Budgerigah
Brown song lark

Above left
Zebra finch

Column one
White plumed honey eater
Spiny cheeked honey eater

Column two
Crimson chat
Orange chat
Chirruping wegdebill

Column three
Rufous whistler
Willy wagtail

Column four
Black-faced wood swallow
Apostle bird
Richard's pipit

Above
Feeding young willy wag-tails

